

Transparency International Fiji is an independent, non-government and non-partisan organisation dedicated to promoting a culture of zero corruption. We are one of 90 local chapters of TI, based in Berlin, Germany.

About Us

Say YES to Integrity and NO to Corruption!

With a vision to free Fiji from corruption in the private sector and public sector, civil society and the daily lives of our people, we promote the values of transparency, accountability, integrity, courage, justice, democracy, peace and stability.

relating to forest management and timber trade systems.

Our ALAC programme provides free legal advice and assistance for witnesses and victims of corruption who have exhausted all means of getting help.

We conduct lectures and trainings on topics related to corruption and emphasise on values needed to combat it.

We attend overseas international conferences to keep abreast with the latest trends and tools used in the fight against corruption and share these experiences.

Our civic education outreach enhances our citizens' knowledge and skills for their effective participation in the family, community and country.

We collaborate with stakeholders, civil society organisations and interest groups in forums, trainings, workshops, lectures, and seminars to learn from others and share our unique experiences, knowledge and skills.

We believe that with everyone's effort we can eradicate corruption and champion the values of integrity, accountability and transparency.

We conduct a wide range of annual international researches and publish reports on them. These are used for analysis to help influence policies, especially those that relate to good governance.

Our Open Budget Initiative (OBI) allows for the independent and comparative measure the level of accountability of our Government Budget.

We create awareness, inform and promote our work through the media, products and methodologies.

Our Forestry Project helps forestry stakeholders dialogue and have access to sound tools

TI Fiji works in partnership with the private and public sectors and civil society in order to fight corruption. We believe that together we can end corruption.
